Southern Sudan 3W - (Who is doing What Where) Database

Notes

- 1 The Administrative unit names used in this report do not imply official endorsement/ recognition by the United Nations but merely reflects the names used by the source of the information . In recent times, there has been alot of subdivisions of Counties, however, we have not received the official listing of County names.
- 2 This report does not necessarily reflect physical presence but indicates provision of support activities/services within the county/State.
- 3 The Office of the Deputy Resident and Humanitarian Coordinator (DRHC), based in in Juba, coordinates recovery, development and humanitarian interventions in Southern Sudan. The coordination structure on the ground is shared between DRHC/OCHA and UNMIS as per the table below.

organisation	Physical Presence (Town)	States
DRHC	Juba, Rumbek, Yambio, Torit/Kapoeta, Malakal	Western Bahr El Ghazal, Western Equatoria, Eastern Equatoria, Central Equatoria, Lakes, Upper Nile
OCHA	Juba, Yei, Aweil, Bentiu, Bor, Kwaiok	Northern Bahr El Ghazal, Warrap, Unity, Jonglei
UNMIS	Juba, Wau, Malakal, Rumbek	Central Equatoria, Western Bahr El Ghazal, Upper Nile, Lakes

- 4 This report does not contain Information on agencies that provide direct support to the Government of Southern Sudan at the national level through funding or technical assistance.
- 5 A number of UN agencies have programmes covering most of southern Sudan in particular sectors e.g WFP (Food Aid), UNICEF (Education/WES/Health/Nutrition/Protection and Human Rights/NFIs), UNDP (Governance and Rule of law), UNFPA (Health), FAO (Food security and livelihood recovery), UNMAS (Mine Action), WHO (Health - Polio Campaigns), OCHA (Coordination), UNAIDS(HIV/AIDS).
- 6 Note that at times some agencies go into certain counties in response to emergency situations e.g WFP(Food aid), ICRC(Medical Evacuation), WHO (Epidemic outbreaks), EPR (Emergency Assessments).
- 7 The EPR (Emergency Preparedness and Response) unit in Southern Sudan - coordinates Emergency Preparedness and Response for Governmental and Humanitarian agencies, organises and conducts emergency assessments and interventions and coordinates contingency planning process. ERR is based in the OCHA office in Juba
- 8 United Nations Joint Logistics Centre (UNJLC) in South Sudan was established to coordinate the logistics capabilities of cooperating humanitarian agencies. They have established an office in Juba.
- 9 United Nations Development Fund for Women (UNIFEM) has established an office in Juba and are working at national level on the following:- Gender Audit and Dissemination of interim constitution and CPA, Capacity building of women parliamentarians and addressing violence against women.
- 10 United Nations Joint Programme on HIV/AIDS(UNAIDS) has established an office in Juba to support the Government of South Sudan to develop HIV/AIDS Programmes as well as to work closely with cosponsors and other stakeholders.
- 11 United Nations Office for Project Services (UNOPS) provides project management services for clients in a range of fields where the UN has a mandate. UNOPS operates from Juba and has a network of offices in southern Sudan.
- 12 This report includes some information on the Transitional areas of Abyei, Nuba Mountains (Southern Kordofan) and South Blue Nile (only Kurmuk County). Information on organisations activities in the Nuba mountains has been sourced, compiled and provided by courtesy of NMPACT.
- 13 Information in this report has been sourced from reports from sectoral forums, the Work plan 2006, OCHA Area Coordination offices and from direct correspondence with the organisations.

This report is continuously revised as new information becomes available. Please forward your corrections/updates to IMUSouth@un.org
